Cardboard Boat Regatta

Sunday, July 29, 2007

3 PM Poolside, 3:15 PM Judging and Inspection

Official Rules:

Teams should display their boat name creatively.

Boats must hold the weight of 2 passengers; the team must begin and end with the crew intact for the boat to qualify for fastest time.

Boats must be muscle powered, aided by paddles or oars made of permitted materials

Boats will race 2 at a time for 100 yards. Boats with the fastest times in the time trials will advance to the semi-finals and finals

Teams must retrieve their boats-and any remains- from the pool.

Disclaimer: If any crew member needs a life jacket, please provide an appropriate life jacket.

Prizes:

- The Pride of the Regatta- Overall fastest time
(THE WINNING FAMILY ALSO TAKES THE $150 FOOD CREDIT)
- Captain's Craftsmanship Award -Most outstanding and creative boat design
- The Rah! Rah! Award- The crew with the most spirit (Think Costumes and Uniforms!)
- The Titanic Award- The most spectacular sinking

Permitted Materials List:

- 2 pool noodles
- As much Cardboard and Duct tape as you need

Decorations:

- Must be made out of cloth or fabric

Paint:

- A one-part enamel paint (Any applied paint must be allowed to dry for at least 24 hours prior to the race, so we don't mess up the pool!)

Not Permitted:

- Glues and adhesives
- Varnish
- Epoxy
- Water sealants
- Tar based substances
- Styrofoam
- Nuts, bolts, washers and/or staples
